

Nema buys thread

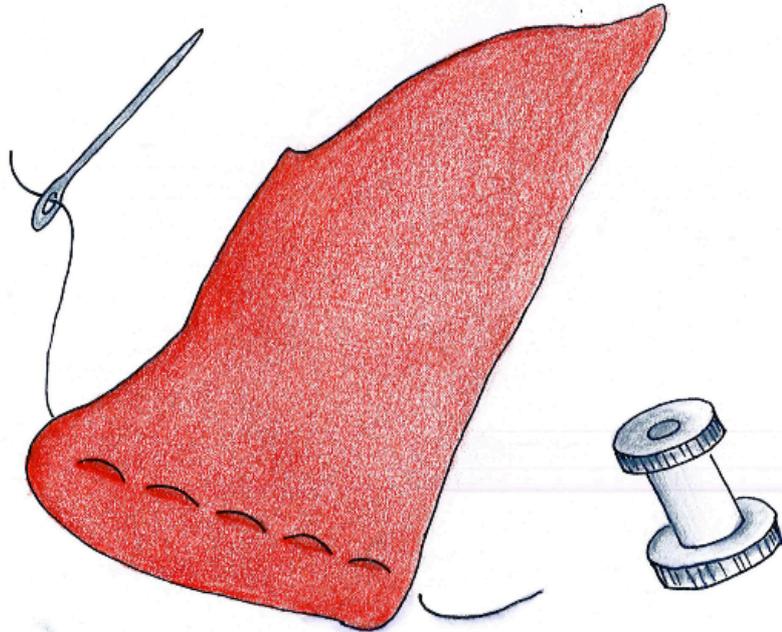

Little Zebra Books
Mirjam Gyger

This is Nema.

Nema is sewing.

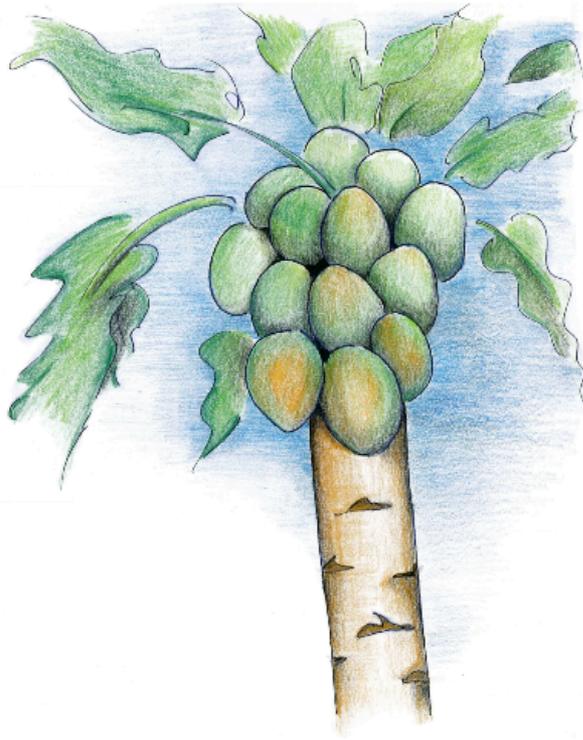

Nema is sewing a skirt.

Nema is sewing with thread.

The thread runs out. Nema needs to buy more thread.

Nema needs money to buy thread. Where will she get some money?

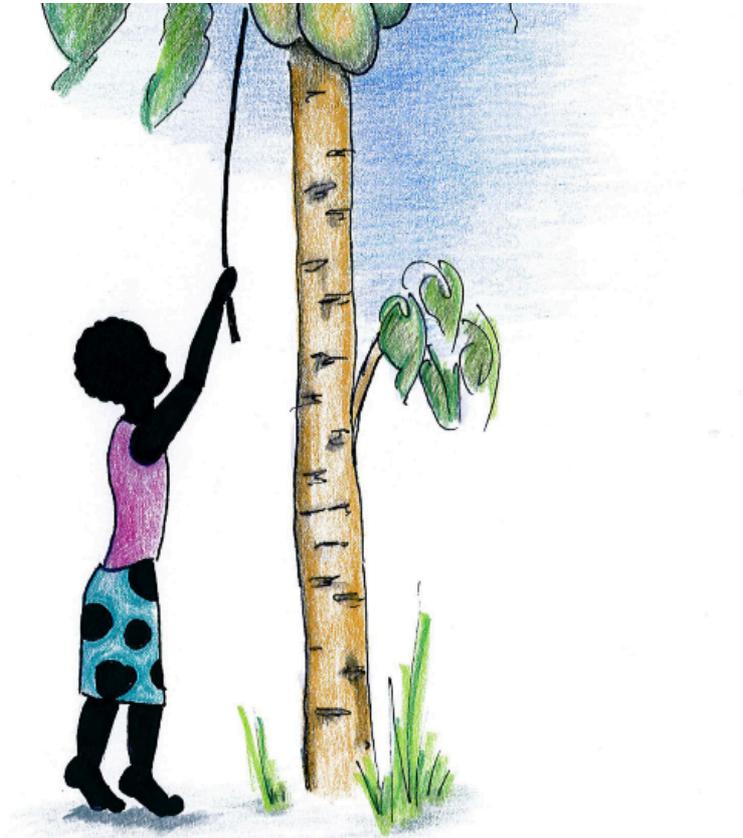

Nema sees a tree.

The tree is nearby. The tree has fruit.

The fruits are papayas.

Papayas are delicious.

Nema has a stick.

She gets the papayas.

Nema arrives at the market.

She arrives at the market with the papayas.

She wants to sell the papayas.

Look at the man. The man buys a papaya. He gives money to Nema.

Nema sells lots of papayas. She is going to buy thread with the money.

In the market she sees bananas.

She does not buy bananas.

In the market she sees tomatoes.

She does not buy
tomatoes.

In the market she sees a sieve.

She does not buy the sieve.

In the market she sees bread.

She does not buy bread.

Then Nema sees a man.

The man is selling thread.

Nema buys thread.

Nema has thread! She is so happy.

She will finish sewing her skirt with the thread.

Nema buys thread

Author - Little Zebra Books

Illustration - Mirjam Gyger

Language - English

Level - First paragraphs

© African Storybook Initiative 2018

Creative Commons: Attribution 4.0

Source www.africanstorybook.org

Original source © 2016 Mercy Air/JOCUM