

Chip Can't Nap

Adapted from EL
Education

Chip is sleepy. It is time for his cat nap.

He sleeps by a shop. His bed is a hat.

He hears a loud thud! And then a bash!

THUD !

BASH !

"What was that?" he thinks.

It is the trash can. A man from the shop
shut the lid.

"Okay, now I can nap," Chip thinks. He closes his eyes.

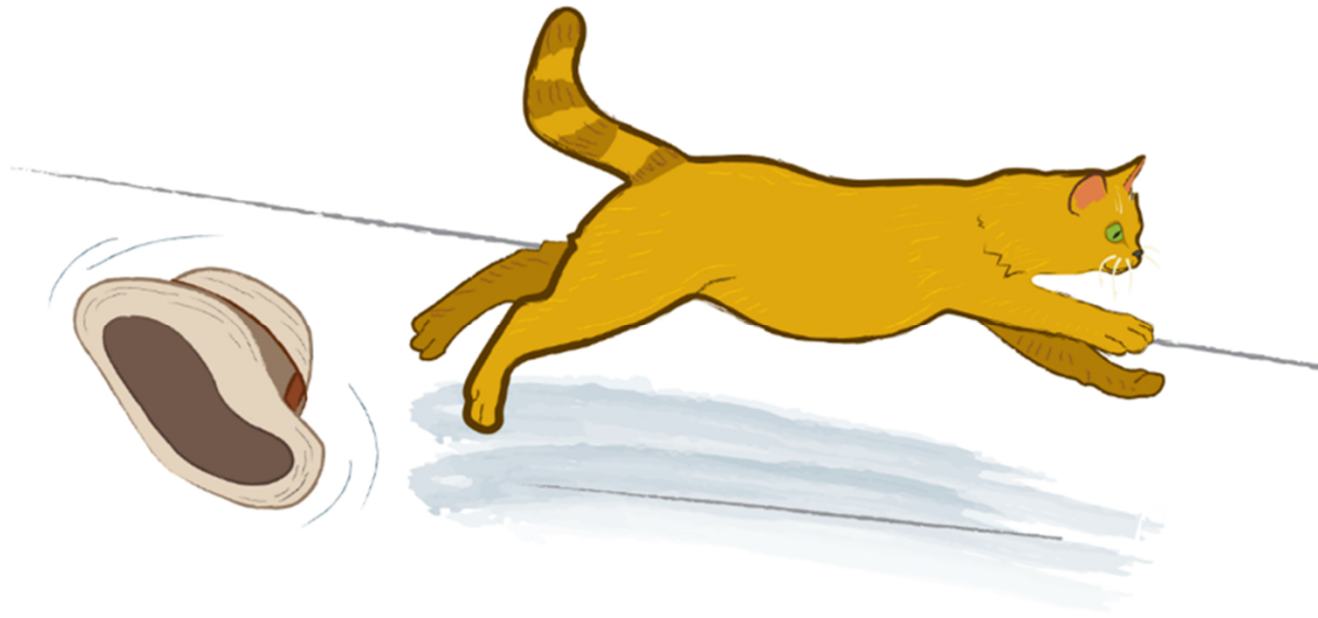

But then he hears a horn honking!

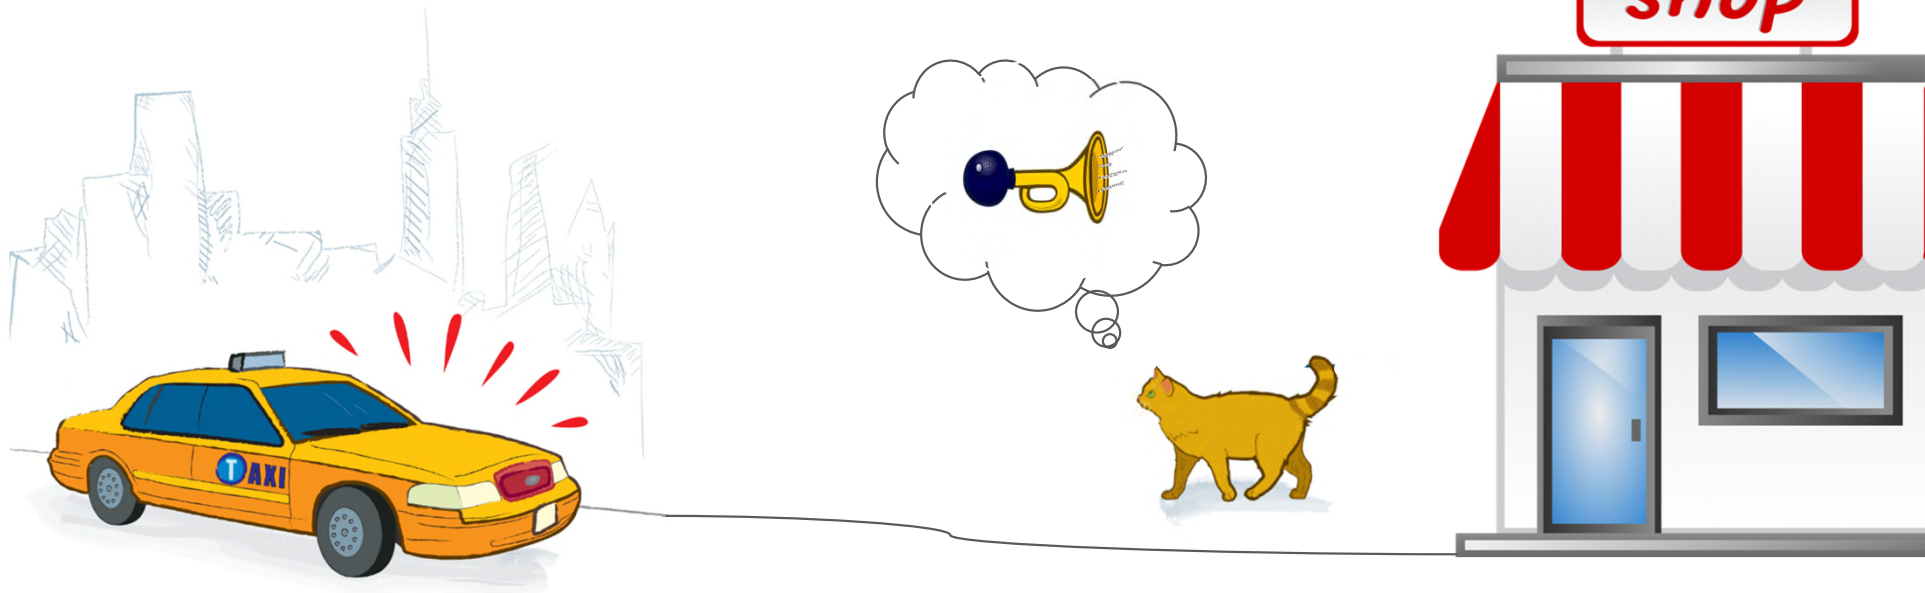

He gets up and runs to the street. He wants to see what is the problem.

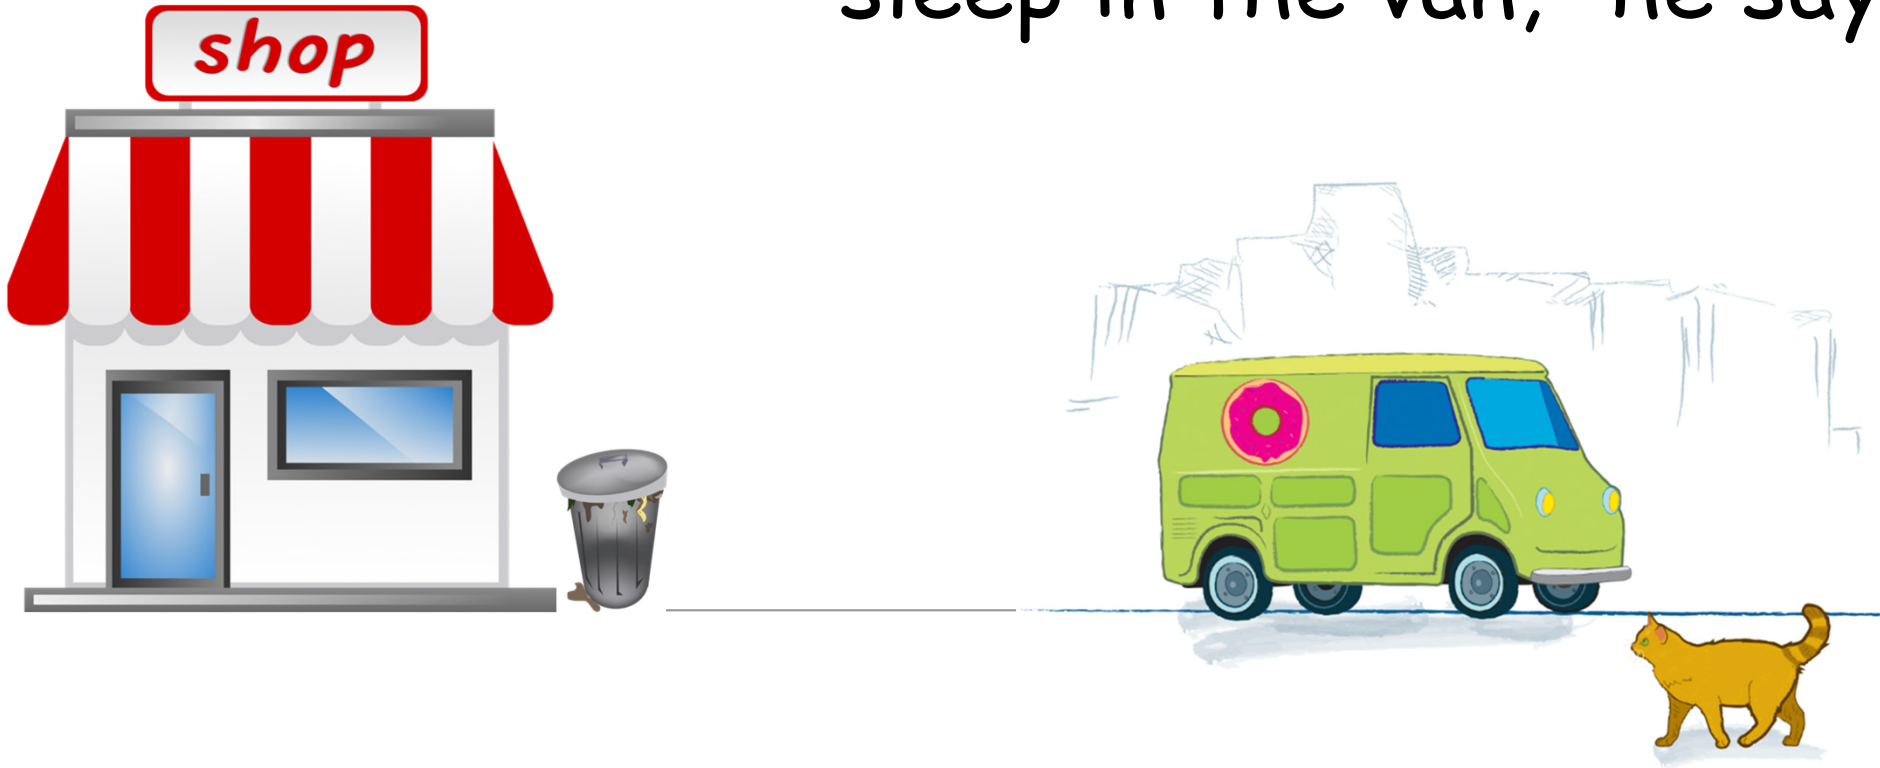

Chip sees a taxi cab. The cab is honking the horn.

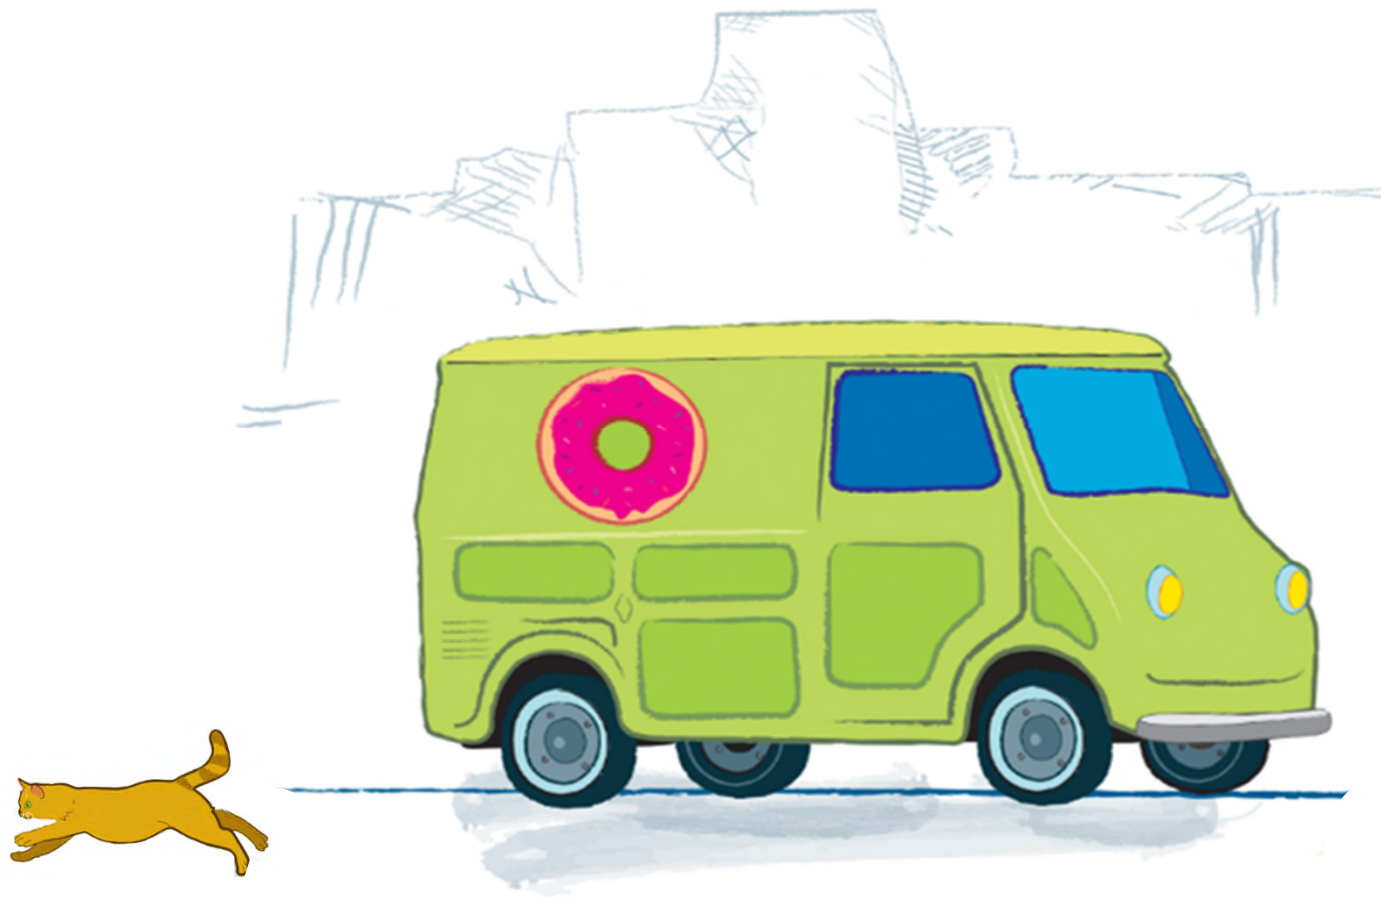

"Ugh!" Chip says. "Will I ever get to take a nap?" Chip is sleepy.

Chip sees a van by the shop. "Maybe I can sleep in the van," he says.

But the van windows are shut.

"I really need a nap," Chip says. He is very, very sleepy.

Chip runs to his friend Pat's house.
"I will take a nap here," he says.

He falls asleep in the soft grass by the house.

When chip wakes up, he finds a gift.
Pat has left him a bowl of milk.

Chip licks the bowl. He ate all the milk. He is a happy cat now.
