Josh and Chip at the Farm

Adapted from EL
Education

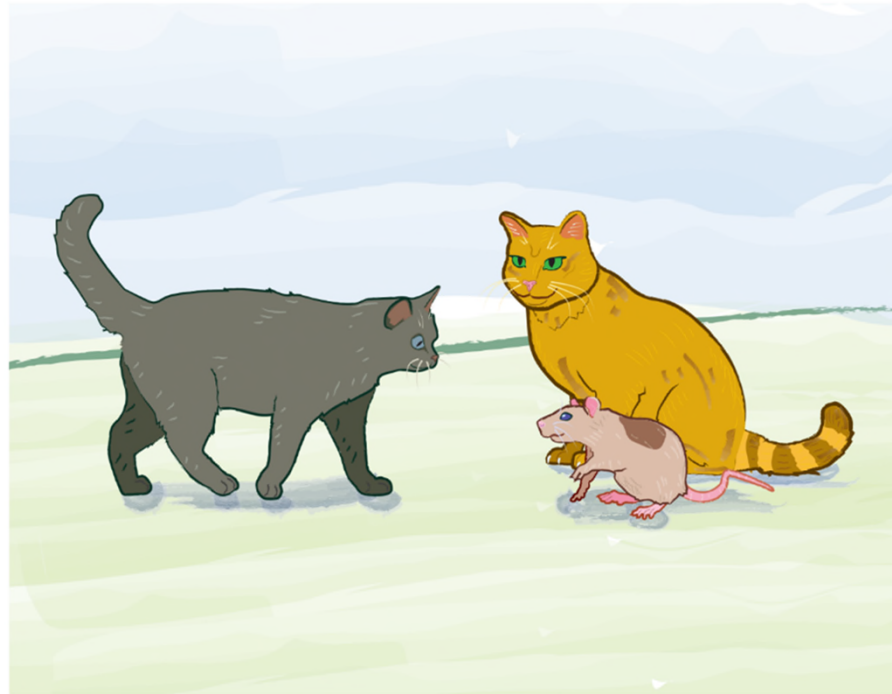

Josh and Chip want to go on a trip. They get on a bus.

They get off the bus and look around.
They see red buildings and trees. This is not a city. Where are they?

They see another cat. She says, "Hi friends!"
Chip asks, "Where are we?"
"You are at the farm," she says. "Come and see."

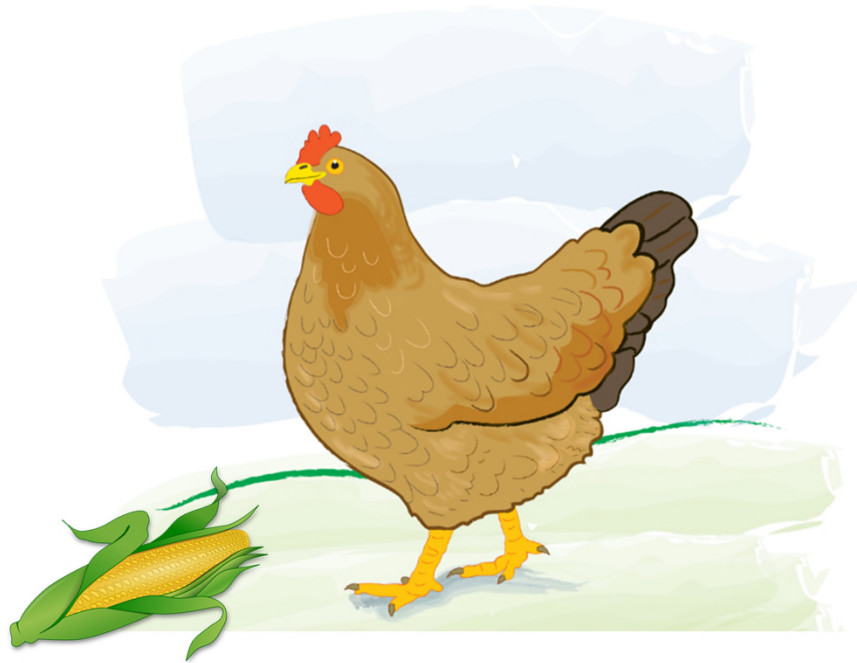

They see a big red building. "This is a barn," the farm cat says. Many animals live here.

First they see a fat pink pig. He likes to be in the mud.

Then they see a brown hen. She clucks and eats bits of corn.

They see a rat with a long tail. He likes cheese.

Josh and Chip say thank you for the visit. They like the farm. And it is time to go home.

Josh and Chip get on the bus. Now they will go back to the city.
